The Department of English Language and Literature offers a major program of study leading to a Bachelor of Arts in English, as well as a minor program of study in English. Lower-level courses in the department support the college's General Education Program. By studying British, American, and world literatures, students who major or minor in English learn to read closely, to think critically, and to write clearly. English majors may pursue one of three areas of emphasis, literary criticism, creative writing or English education, or choose a degree without an area of emphasis. Students who meet the requirements are invited to complete an Honors Sequence in their area of emphasis. A major in English provides a solid foundation for the business world, law school, journalism, education, or graduate study in any field.

To be eligible for the Honors Sequence, a student must:

1. Have an overall grade point average of no less than 3.25
2. Have an English grade point average of no less than 3.5
3. Have received a "B-" or better in ENG 290: Critical Practicum.

All Tracks: Majors must select at least one course each from: Literature before 1850, Literature after 1850, American Literature, British/World Literature.

All English majors must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses used to satisfy major requirements.

American Literature requirement: 6 hrs. from ENG 238, ENG 239, or 300 level American Lit. At least one course must have an Ethnic Component.

British/World Literature requirement: 6 hrs. form ENG 205, 206, 248, 249, 300-level British/World Literature, Shakespeare.

‡ ENG 205 may count for either the 200-level literature requirement or the 200-level writing requirement, but may not count for both requirements.

If any substitutions of waivers of requirements are allowed, please list below and initial.
