2006 Alumni Achievement Award

Arthur F. Hoge graduated from Westminster in 1975 with a degree in Mathematics. Hoge was a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa National Honor Society and Pi Mu Epsilon National Honorary Math Fraternity.

Hoge attended Southern Methodist University School of Law and graduated “Order of the Coif” in the top ten percent of his class in 1981. There he served as the editor of the Southwestern Law Journal, was an Exxon Scholar, a Johnson, Bromberg Leeds & Rigg Scholar and a member of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity.

Hoge began his career in law in 1981 as an Associate Attorney with Crow & Dunlevy, PC in Oklahoma City. In 1987, Hoge became a shareholder and the firm’s Director.

In 1999, Hoge formed the firm, Mee, Mee & Hoge PLLP, where he is a Principal Attorney. Hoge’s areas of practice include estate and charitable planning, litigation, and fraternity and sorority law and housing. Mee, Mee & Hoge has been selected as one of the preeminent law firms by Martindale-Hubbell international attorney digest, and Hoge was bestowed with the “AV” rating, the highest rating available, based on peer reviews. Hoge is a frequent speaker in continuing legal education courses for life insurance agents and planners in the areas of estate and charitable planning and creditor protection.

Hoge is a nationally recognized expert in the area of fraternity and sorority law and housing. His clientele include the North-American Interfraternity Conference, Inc., Fraternity Information and Programming Group, Inc. (FIPG), Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc., Delta Delta Delta Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Alpha Order, Inc., Delta Tau Delta, Inc., Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity, Inc., Delta Chi Fraternity, Inc., Sigma Kappa Sorority, Inc., Pi Kappa Phi Inc. and Phi Iota Alpha Inc. Hoge has served as an expert witness in numerous cases, prepares legal opinions for universities and is a frequent lecturer and presenter at industry seminars. Hoge is a founding member of the FIPG Standing Committee on Legal Affairs.

In addition to his practice, Hoge has remained active with the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at the corporate level, serving on the International Board of Directors from 1994-2004 and holding the offices of treasurer, reporter and international president and chairman. Hoge was also appointed as Chairman of the 2004-08 National Capital Gifts Campaign for the Phi Delta Theta Educational Foundation, Inc. From 1991 through 1994, Hoge served as the Leadership Education Commissioner and head of the annual Phi Delta Theta Leadership College, attended by approximately 500 undergraduates and 30 faculty members from throughout the United States and Canada.

Hoge has also served his local community in many roles. He is an executive committee member of the Board of Directors of the Integris Baptist Medical Center Foundation and the Chairman of the Planned Giving Council. He is a member of the Salvation Army Planned Giving Committee for the Oklahoma City area, Kiwanis Club of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Golf and Country Club and All Souls Episcopal Church.

Hoge resides in Oklahoma City, OK with his wife of 21 years, Margaret. They have two children, Katie and Cort.

“In looking back, I attribute a significant amount of my happiness in life to the growth I experienced at Westminster, and the environment at Westminster that fostered that growth.”
