

F. BROOKE SLOSS HALL

Campaign

Brooke and Martha Sloss with their grandchildren on the Westminster campus.

THE SLOSS FAMILY IS VERY HONORED AND PROUD TO LEARN OF WESTMINSTER COLLEGE'S DECISION TO NAME THE NEW FRESHMEN DORMITORY IN BROOKE'S MEMORY. WESTMINSTER COLLEGE AND THE SUCCESS OF ITS STUDENTS MEANT THE WORLD TO HIM. THROUGH HIS INSPIRATION AND DEVOTION TO THIS FINE COLLEGE, WE TOO GREW TO LOVE WESTMINSTER AND ARE TOUCHED TO KNOW THAT HIS NAME WILL JOIN THE IMMORTALIZED RANKS OF MARQUESS, SCOTT, RICE, AND GAGE.

SINCERELY,

*Martha W. Sloss

It is a rare privilege when we have a chance to really demonstrate our appreciation to someone who has made such a difference in the lives of so many people. For more than 60 years, Brooke Sloss gave tirelessly to Westminster. Now, it's our opportunity to say "Thanks Brooke!" by honoring his Westminster legacy and naming the new North Residence Hall the F. Brooke Sloss Hall. In order to properly honor Brooke, the College has officially launched the Sloss Campaign—not only to recognize Brooke's many achievements, but to also generate funds to help continue the legacy of learning which Brooke established during his 66 years at Westminster. As a friend, colleague, and mentor Brooke made a huge difference in our lives. As co-chairs of this important initiative, we invite you to review the giving levels noted in this brochure and strongly consider contributing to the Campaign. Please consider the impact Brooke made on you and the campus. We, along with Martha Sloss and the entire Sloss family, are deeply grateful for your consideration.

Thank you.
